THAT CHRISMAN ROAD

SOME COLD FACTS FOR TAXPAYERS TO CONSIDER.

Judge Chrisman Cost the People of Jackson County Several Thousand Dollars to Improve His Own Property.

So great is the objection to Judge Lee Chrisman, the road builder, among the voters of the county that his personal organ, the Sentinel at Independence, came out yesterday with an attempted defense of his course. The article was delayed until all other county papers were out so that next week, beginning Thursday night, and no reply could be made through them to lasting through Sunday. There will be 300 the country voters.

Just to show up some misstatements in Chrisman's defense Mr. W. T. Hearne and Mr. W. H. Colbern, two of the most solid farmers of Jackson county, yesterday prepared the following statement of facts about the Chrisman road and how it was

Hearne and Mr. Colbern yesterday joined in this statement:

The defense of Chrisman in the Sentinel is not only unfair and misleading, but is untruthful, and we believe wilfully so. It first says there was no division as to roads from Independence to a point beyond the county farm. Everyone knows this is an untruth, for Quint Goodman and others, at quite an expense and trouble, obtained a right of way to take the old road away from its proximity to the Missouri Pacific railroad under promise from Chrisman that he would then favor that route. We now know that he did not do it, but ran the road another route by the Welsh farm. The Sentinel is careful to conceal the figures as to cost, distance, etc., as given by Callahan and Tuttle & Pike, and also falls to give the name of the ex-county surveyor as well as figures, etc. It also says the old road ran past the farm of W. T. Hearne and others, and that the other road passed in the neighborhood of a tract of land owned by Judge Chrisman, and ran by the Howard farm, when the truth is, the road is a mile from the Howard residence, and is only one-quarter mile from the Chrisman residence, and alongside of his 2,600 acre farm. It is not true that Chrisman let Judges Marsh and Stone settle the road question. Judge Stone asserts that they all voted to open a new road by the Chrisman farm, but that only Chrisman and Marsh voted to grade and improve it, he opposing it, and we know that when we attempted to swear Chrisman off the bench at Kansas City, that he failed to get off and was so advised by his counselor. Reed. The idea of Chrisman's enemies organizing a Republican newspaper in Independence and began their war, an enlightened community smiles when they consider that the city editor of the Sentinel voted for McKinley for president in 18% and supported his policy, and was always a Republican till he got his position with the Sentinel." Here are some facts:

"Some cold facts in regard to the Independence and Lee's Summit road, and the Chrisman road, that are of interest to all taxpayers and also to Judge G. L. Chrisman, who of late has been advertised to the public as the great road builder (the first and only one), by the Independence Sentinel, and Lee's Summit road. Now let us see what has been done. About three miles of the Independence and Lee's Summit to grade a is an untruth, for Quint Goodman and others, at quite an expense and trouble, obtained a right of way to take the old point Judge Chrisman with Judge Marsh's vote has deflected three-quarters of a mile east and graded a road by his farm, and on to the limits of Lee's Summit, a distance of 5½ miles actual survey (and reported by Callahan as five miles), and has macadamized two miles from Lee's Summit toward his farm, when the actual cost of it (that is, gaading and macadamizing the 5½ miles) is known and not disputed to be over $5.000 more than to have used the real Independence and Lee's Summit road of $2.7 miles distance. It is a fact there are but two right angles on this last road, and it runs directly into the Raytown and Lone Jack macadam road, entering Lee's Summit, whereas the Chrisman road has five right surgles, and enters Lee's Summit on a dirt street of some three-eighths of a mile, with no loope whatever to be macadamized for a generation unless Judge Chrisman furnishes the money from his private purse. "Again from the Little Blue bridge they have left the main road and run through the country past the Milton Welsh farm to the Blue Springs road, some two miles out from Independence. This is the steepest grade of any road in the country and cannot be kept in repair except at ruinous expense, and even then cannot be a good road. This road has been graded entire, and from the Blue Springs road pust the Welsh farm rocked some one and one-half miles. Near where it leaves the road at Little Blue, a fill that was cut out of the side of a hill is now washed away, so there is barely room for a wagon to pass, and in order to make it at all substantial, it will necessitate a retaining wall, twenty feet above ground, and from ten to twenty feet in the ground, a distance of 290 or more yards. There is also here an uninished bridge that is some twenty feet high, and only propoed up, with the sproaches unfilled and is impussable. It is a fact the old road, were it macadamized in its present condition, would be much apperior to the Welsh road. The public can understand why Chrisman bullt the road by his own farm, but wonder why he is part.

"It will thus be seen that the road from Lee's Summit to Independence could have been built for $4,600 in round numbers, and the distance thirteen miles, while on

The State Medical Institute Discovers a Remarkable Remedy for Lost Vigor.

ARE SENDING FREE A TRIAL PACK-

AGE TO ALL WHO WRITE.

Free samples of a most remarkable remedy are being distributed by the State Medical institute, Fort Wayne, Ind. It cured so many men who had buttled for years against the mental and physical suffering of lost manhood that the institute has decided to distribute free trial packages to all who write. It is a home treatment, and all men who suffer with any form of sexual weakness resulting any form of sexual weakness resulting from youthful folly, premature loss of strength and memory, weak back, varicocele, or emaciation of parts, can now cure themselves at home.

The remedy has a peculiarly grateful effect of warmth and seems to act direct to the desired location, giving strength and development just where it is needed. It cures all the ills and troubles that come from years of misuse of the natural function; and has been an absolute success in all cases. A request to the State Medical Institute, ITS First National Bank building. Fort Wayne, Ind., stating that you desire one of their free trial packages, will be compiled with. The Institute is desirous of reaching that great class of men who are mable to leave home to be treated, and the free sample will enable them to see how easy it is to be cured of sexual weakness, when the proper remedies are employed. The Institute makes no restrictions. Any man who writes will be sent a free sample, carefully scaled in a plain package, so that its recipient need have no fear of embarrassment or publicity, Read-ers are requested to write without delay. youthful folly, premature loss of the Chrisman and Welsh road $24,446.43 has already been spent, and only three and one-half miles macadamed, while the distance from Lee's Summit to Independence by this route is fifteen miles or more. The cost to complete this road is an uncertain quantity but suffice over its about to miles. to complete this road is an uncertain quantity, but suffice to say it is about ten miles of macadam, which would be $5.090. Thus we have $2.090 more money spent to build a road by the farms of Judge Chrisman and Mr. Welsh, and conjelling every person who goes from Lee's Summit to Independence to travel four to five miles further every round trip, for all time to come, and the people all the while taxed that much more to keep it in repair. Are Democrats and taxpayers of Jackson county supposed to be party bound enough to continue this sort of business? We think not."

PREPARING FOR CONVENTION.

Twenty-second Annual Meeting of the Missouri Y. M. C. A. Will Be Held Here This Week.

The twenty-second annual convention of the Y. M. C. A. will meet in Kansas City delegates here from all parts of the state lasting through Sunday. There will be 300 delegates here from all parts of the state. The Y. M. C. A. building, Seventh and Wyandotte, will be headquarters for delegates. The sessions of the convention will be held at the First Baptist church, Twelfth and Baltimore.

The principal speakers will be Rev. Mr. C. H. Patton, of the First Congregational church, St. Louis, who will deliver the opening address on Thursday evening; H. W. Rose, of the university at Ann Arbor, Mich.; John W. Hansel, of the Chicago training school, who will have charge of Bible study; Fred L. Willis, the secretary of the Omaha association; Judge Selden P. Spencer, of St. Louis, one of the ablest lawyers of the state; C. S. Ward, of Minneapolis, representing the international committee, and Fred B. Shipp, recently of New York, who will represent the railroad department. Among other leaders who will be present are Thomas S. Mc-Pheeters, Professor J. W. Kirkpatrick, Dr. R. H. Jesse, M. C. Powell, of St. Joseph, and John H. Taylor. The music, which is intended to be an inspiring part of the convention, will be in charge of Mr. Hansel and Secretary Willis, assisted by the Kansas City male quartette. Some of the special features of the programme will be the convention address by Dr. Patton. Bible study each day, conducted by Mr. Hansel; department conferences, Friday afternoon; business men's mass meeting, Friday evening, and addresses on army, college and railroad work.

LAW FIRM TO DISSOLVE.

D. B. Holmes Will Retire and Frank Hagerman Will Take His Place With Karnes & Krauthoff.

Pursuant to the terms of the partnership between J. V. C. Karnes, D. B. Holmes and L. C. Krauthoff, which was formed in 1889 for a period of ten years, Mr. Holmes will retire from the firm January 1 and will retire from the firm January 1 and will assume for himself the position which he has heretofore filled as a member of the firm, that of counsel for the Metropolitan Street Railway Company. Frank Hagerman will take Mr. Holmes place in the firm, which will assume the position which Mr. Hagerman has filled alone, that of attorneys for the road. Mr. Holmes will probably have his office at the general offices of the company, while Mr. Hagerman will office with the firm in the water works building. The firm will be known as Karnes, Hagerman & Krauthoff.

Mr. Holmes is one of the best corporations lawyers in the state. He pays special attention to the law of municipal corporations and is probably as able a lawyer in this branch as there is in the state.

The firm of Karnes, Holmes & Krauthoff is one of the leading firms in the state. Hen, J. V. C. Karnes is the senior member. He has been engaged in the practice of his profession in Kansas City thirty-five years. In 1856 he formed a partnership lasted till 1886, when Judge Ess retired and L. C. Krauthoff took his place. The firm remained Karnes & Krauthoff until 1889, when Mr. Holmes became a member. Mr. Karnes is one of the leading trial lawyers of the state.

Mr. Krauthoff is one of the hardest stuassume for himself the position which he ant. Krauton is one of the nardest students in the state, and since his admission to the firm he has risen to a front rank as a corporation lawyer. He has carried almost alone some of the biggest cases that have come up in the entire West.

Postmaster Scott says it will take fifteen more carriers to deliver the mail and a few more clerks to get it ready to be delivered. Five additional carriers, making in all ninety-three, have been secured. They are to begin work the first of the coming year. The rush mail, such as comes from grain firms, commission men, packing and wholesale establishments, suffers greatly. It is usually impossible to get their mail out or in on time. This delays business and places business men at a disadvantage when they are compelled to compete with tirms in Chicago and St. Louis, having nineteenth century facilities. firms in Chicago and St. Louis, having nineteenth century facilities.

Mr. Scott says it is simply impossible to handle mail on time. It is the record of the office that it never has been done, and that the business interests of the city have always been hampered and handicapped by rotten mail facilities. The burning issue is to change this stagnant condition and secure mail facilities that will make Kansas City a good place to do business in. General Perry Heath, first assistant postmaster general, will be here Wednesday and will take up the matter of providing mail facilities for Kansas City.

GOOD SHEPHERD FAIR.

The sisters of the House of the Good Shepherd will give a bazar in the storeroom at the southwest corner of Eleventh and Main streets, beginning November 14 and Main streets, beginning November 14 and ending November 21. Dinner will be served every day under the direction of a number of well known ladies and the bazar will be held each night in connection with a good concert. The House of the Good Shepherd, situated at the corner of Twenty-first street and Cleveland avenue, is a non-sectatian institution. It is a home for friendless girls, 190 of whom are now unding shelter within its walls. It is the desire of the sisters having it in charge to make the institution self-supporting and the object of the coming bazar is to raise funds to purchase a steam laundry plant that will furnish light employment for these girls.

SAME OLD STORY.

Had a Little Home, Got Married, Husband Mortgaged Property and Then Deserted Her.

Annie Williams, of Butler, Mo., was in Kansas City yesterday looking for a de-linquent husband, Charles Williams, She swore out a warrant before Justice Spitz for his arrest on a charge of abandonment. She says she owned a little home in Butler, Mo., when he married her, but after awhile educed her to mortgage the place to him a team and wagon. She raised $150 on her home and he promised to pay off the mortgage with the first carload of scrap iron he handled with his new outfit. She says he made $157 on his first carload and then took the money and team and started for Kansas City, selling the rig at Inde-pendence.

STRENGTH FOR WEAK MEN

BY CHRISTMAS TIME, 1898.

November, nearly two full months to Christmas. Plenty of time to regain lost vigor. Start new year with new strength. Say the word. Let me show to you what I have been showing men for over a quarter of a century, the true road to health. The remedy I offer will serve you faithfully without

During my early years of practice I gave prescriptions to weak men. I know better now. For thirty years I have been treating those peculiar nervous symptoms which result from youthful errors or later excesses, such as Drains, Impotency, Lame Back, Varicocle, etc. From so vast an experience I can usually offer men, single or married, valuable advice. Reader, I wish it was within my power to show every weak man what wonderful results I am getting from my famous appliance, the

You must believe when I show you 5,000 unsolicited testimonials of absolute cures-names and addresses-received during 1897. This Belt is the result of years of patient study.

It develops from a portable chain battery I invented twenty-five years ago. It has undergone many changes, until to-day it embodies the best features of all electrical appliances, and constitutes what I consider a perfect home self-treatment for men. It is really a portable battery of 36 elements. Weight 6 ounces. Currents instantly felt, though regulated to any degree of strength while on body by using regulator thumb screw. Worn all night. Soothes, strengthens, cures while you sleep.

WITH INSURANCE MEN

BUSINESS MEN ARE TOO GENERALLY IGNORANT ABOUT INSURANCE.

The Circuit Court Upholds "Special Contracts"-Efforts to Diminish Policy Twisting-Interesting Insurance Gossip.

From the United States Review. It is a common criticism among fire un-derwriters that business men are too genderwriters that business men are too generally ignorant of the provisions of the policies which they carry on their insured property. In commenting upon this fact, the Evening Post of New York, significant-to-make the policies which they carry on their insured property. And yet, de.

The Kansas insurance department has of policy has been in use in New York state for several years, its simplest provisions are often misunderstood. And yet, despite the seeming singularity of sucha condition the reason for it is obvious, in part, at least, Business men as a rule, do not deal with the companies direct, but with the agents and brokers. Their knowledge of the companies in which they insure is usually of a limited character. They know of several of the leading companies by reputation, and therefore readily accept their policies, and as to those with which they are not familiar, the assurances of the same result. As a matter of fact, the business man trusts his broker very much as he trusts his physician or legal adviser, and it is precisely because of this stitution that he does not more intelligently concern himself with the numerous provisions which govern his insurance. Nevertheless, it would be well it property owners as a rule were better posted in regard to their insurance. In the event of less such knowledge would often simplify the adjustments. In this connection an interesting series of lectures on insurance law is being delivered by Morris Putnam Stevens, and the law school of the New York university, and one of these deals with the ignorance laws special or their insurance. They lock up their policies in safe deposit vaults and never look at them until the fire occurs, when they discover that they have been going along for years without proper protection. For instance, they forget many times that they cannot procure additional insurance without they for more than loss and of the consent of the insurance companies would not be likely to refuse by a return to former customs. Of course, companies would not be sufficient if they chose to make it.

His Last Sermon at St. Pather border at the order of the insurance companies would not be sufficient if they chose to make it.

The mission school which has been conducted at St. Partick's church during the past two weeks will close with this eventually the policy has the process of chose to make it.

Then, too, mechanics are often employed (without the consent of the insurance company) for more than lifteen days in repairing a building. Such action voids a polley, as does also the giving of a chattel mortgage. Lawyers should remember that if foreclosure proceedings are begun, a policy of insurance covering the property affected becomes void. The insurance company should always be notified when a change of ownership or of part ownership takes place. should always be notified when a change of ownership or of part ownership takes place, but notice is not necessary of the giving of a mortgage upon real estate, it having been held that the giving of a mortgage does not create any change of interest, title, or possession. Sometimes policies are assigned absolutely or as collateral before a loss occurs. If assigned absolutely (without consent of the company), the policy is void. If assigned as collateral it is not void. The keeping of benzine, fireworks, gasoline, Greek fire, or more than twenty-five pounds of gunpowder, under certain conditions, also voids a policy.

derwriters during the past year has made a strong effort to diminish the practice of derwriters during the past year has made a strong effort to diminish the practice of policy twisting, and the association is under many obligations for the earnest support given the measure by the officers of the life insurance companies, insurance commissioners, insurance editors and the fraternity at large. As the result of the work in this direction the association has issued a pamphlet and passed resolutions upon the subject at the last convention held at Minneapolis, August 17, 18 and 19, at which time the secretary was directed to send copies of said pamphlet to the presidents of the varioue insurance companies throughout the United States, and I beg to inclose copy herewith. The resolution will be found on the last page of the document, and Messrs, Burdlek, Armitage & Allen, Milwaukee, Wis, can give you all information regarding cost.

There is nothing that so completely unfits a man for business as Piles. Many men and women suffer for life with this annoying disease. There is no cure so safe and permanent as a surgical operation. We have permanently cured hundreds of patients who have suffered for years, having tried all kinds of remedies without relief. We have published an illustrated book containing many testimonials from patients treated with entire satisfaction: will be mailed to you free.

Varicocele is radically and permanently cured by our surgical operation in from five to fifteen days. No medicine or local application will ever cure this trouble. We annually cure hundreds of this class of patients, leaving them in a vigorous, healthy condition.
